

Prompt 3 Answer

The bookstore can use Type 1 SCD which will overwrite the previous address, so that only the latest address of the customer is shown. Type 2 SCD will add the new address, as well as keep the old address; this method will show all current and historical information.